Declaration

Please read carefully before signing and submitting this application.

By entering the Eat My Shorts - Short Film Competition 2008, I confirm the following:

1. The film was produced after 1 January 2007.
2. I have written consents from everyone involved in the making of this film to enter the competition.
3. I hold the rights in this film or relevant permissions necessary to allow the film to be screened for public exhibition at the International Comedy Film Festival.
4. I am happy for the festival organisers to screen the film during the period of the Festival free of charge for as many times as required.
5. The International Comedy Film Festival and Eat My Shorts can use the film or excerpts from the film for promotional purposes free of charge.
6. I have cleared all copyright materials featured in this film (including music and graphics) and have the necessary permissions for their use.
7. I am aware that any claims or associated costs and fees that may arise from the screening of the film at the festival are solely my responsibility and that the festival cannot be held responsible for any breach in my obligations.
8. I will indemnify the festival organisers against any claim against them arising directly from the screening of the film, including but not by way of limitation, legal proceedings for libel or defamation.
9. I am also aware that the festival organisers can accept no responsibility for any loss or damage to the film once it has been entered into the festival.
10. I understand that if selected, the film will be considered for competition in the relevant age category.
11. I understand that submitting the film into the competition does not guarantee the film will be screened at the festival. I also understand that the judges decision is final and no appeal procedure is available.
12. I understand that, if the film is selected, only the main contact (named on the front of this form) and one guest will be admitted free to the screening of the film.

Please tick to confirm the following before submitting your application:

- I have read, understood and agree to all of the above.
- The viewing DVD has been watched throughout and is free from fault.
- I have completed all the information required on this form.
- If selected I will submit a jpeg of still images that can be used in the promotion of the film on the festival website and in the festival brochure, etc.
